GROWING IN FAITH, INCLUSIVITY & OUTREACH, THROUGH OPENNESS.

13th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

Entrance Antiphon

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

First Reading

2 Kg 4:8-11, 14-16

One day as Elisha was on his way to Shunem, a woman of rank who lived there pressed him to stay and eat there. After this he always broke his journey for a meal when he passed that way. She said to her husband, 'Look, I am sure the man who is constantly passing our way must be a holy man of God. Let us build him a small room on the roof, and put him a bed in it, and a table and chair and lamp; whenever he comes to us he can rest there.'

One day when he came, he retired to the upper room and lay down. 'What can be done for her?' he asked. Gehazi (his servant) answered, 'Well, she has no son and her husband is old.' Elisha said, 'Call her.' The servant called her and she stood at the door. 'This time next year,' Elisha said 'you will hold a son in your arms.'

Responsorial Psalm

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord

Second Reading

Rom 6:3-4, 8-11

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with him and joined him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life.

But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him any more. When he died, he died, once for all, to sin, so his life now is life with God; and in that way, you too must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people.

Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light.

Alleluia!

Gospel

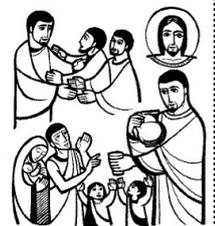

Mt 10:37-42

Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Anyone who prefers father or mother to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who prefers son or daughter to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me. Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.'

'Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me; and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me.'

'Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will have a prophet's reward; and anyone who welcomes a holy man because he is a holy man will have a holy man's reward.'

'If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

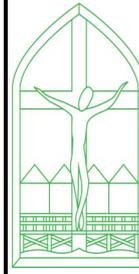

Communion Antiphon

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

A PARISH CONVERSATION

Last week while nattering with Father, I asked him if he had read the current 'Record'. There was a story of a Dominican Brother, Reginald Mary Chua OP, being ordained into the Diaconate in Perth. What I had found deeply compelling was the story of his conversion. "I love reading of people's faith journeys", I said. "I think everyone does. It makes us stop and think of our own ongoing journey. ... Imagine the treasures our Parish holds." And with that (yes, you've guessed it) Father replied, 'Ask for their stories and we can publish them in the Bulletin.'

I therefore implore you - to reflect on the moments that have caused you to stop, to ponder, to search; anything which gave rise to a turning towards God. Then put pen to paper and send it in. (If you would rather meet and share your story orally, I will be more than happy to transcribe it.) Every single one of us, has had experiences that have caused us to search deeper within ourselves as to what we believe and think, or where we stand now in our relationship with God. These moments may have been stirred by reading a book, meeting a person, in prayer or meditation. Something in a homily, or a hymn or a Scripture passage may have sparked an 'AHA' moment. (I had one once while cleaning the bathtub.) The point is we each have stories to tell, important to us, that have kept us from staying stagnant (or should I say 'too comfortable') regarding our faith and our discipleship.

Hopefully, when space permits, we can put shorter stories in the bulletin; but we will keep all the narratives in book form which can be emailed out. ('Stories of our Faith' perhaps?) Send in too, the pearls your children have uttered with their take on God. And finally, please don't think this must be a story where you were away from the Church, or that it must be something big with accompanied 'bells and whistles'. Our lives are defined by lots of small moments that, nevertheless, have immense significance to the way we live it.

CONGRATULATIONS

to our Parish Children who this week celebrated for the first time one of the greatest treasures of our Church the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

We thank the very many people who supported and guided them throughout this part of their journey. Simone Clews (Sacrament co-ordinator); Ross Thomson, Ashlee De Campo, Hayley Jensz (Class Teachers); Peta Somma, Vanessa Philp (Catechists); Tracey Parry, Sandy Liddle (Office Staff who organised rosters and Thanksgiving Cake); the families who journeyed with them and everyone who kept them in their prayers. Thank you!

RECYCLING

The Pope has asked us to consider, 'what kind of a world do we want to leave for those who will come after us, the children growing up'?

Most of us have got simple recycling practices worked out. (Make sure all tins and plastics are clean and check which plastics are accepted by verifying the code. Just one wrong product can send an entire truckload of perfectly good recycling to landfill.) Next up, all scrunchy plastics (which can't go in the yellow bin) can be taken to Coles and Woolworths and put in their large recycling bin at the front of the store. Here in the Parish, you also have the opportunity to drop off your plastic lids and bread clips to the Parish Office or Church. Vanessa kindly picks them up and delivers them to Cowaramup where they are melted down and reused in artistic endeavours. Please do not mix them with beer and wine bottle caps.

"The cry of the earth and the cry of the poor" cannot continue to go unheeded, the pope has said. "Let's take care of creation, a gift of God, our good creator."

HOLY COMMUNION

Please ring the Parish Office if you would like one of our Extraordinary Ministers to bring Communion to your home. A time convenient to all will be arranged with you.

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

The Chaplet of Mercy is recited using ordinary rosary beads of five decades. The Chaplet is preceded by two opening prayers from the Diary of Saint Faustina and followed by a closing prayer. Join us at Our Lady of the Bay Church at 8.45am on the first Sunday of each month.

POPE FRANCIS

Statistics show we now have 80 million (the highest number ever recorded) of displaced persons across the globe. Last Saturday, Pope Francis invited all believers to join him in praying 'for renewed and effective commitment, on the part of us all, to the effective protection of every human being, especially those who have been forced to flee as a result of situations of grave danger to them or their families.'

KEYS

Can everyone holding a key for St Joseph's Church and/or the Ned Kenny Centre please advise the Parish Office. We need to check this against our Parish records and adjust for insurance purposes. Many thanks.

FROM WHERE I STAND

In Sr. Joan Chittister's latest column, she writes: "To see what we have done as a church to counter systemic slavery, I went to the Catholic catechism to see what it said about certain kinds of social sin.

"Consideration of racism is grounded in fundamental scriptural beliefs: equal dignity of all people, created in God's image; and Christ's redemption of all," writes Jesuit Fr. Fred Kammer in the Jesuit Social Research Institute article "Catholic Social Teaching and Racism." He continues, "The Catechism of the Catholic Church spells this out: 'The equality of men rests essentially on their dignity as persons and the rights that flow from it.'" And the U.S. bishops' conference document, "Brothers and Sisters to Us," states:

"Racism is not merely one sin among many; it is a radical evil that divides the human family."

BOOK REPORT

Garrett's Publishing, in their People of God Series, have featured Daniel Rudd - a political activist in the fledgling and dangerous civil rights movement, who spent his life trying to bring about positive social change during the early decades of the Jim Crow era.

In this book, Gary Agee offers a compelling look at the life and work of Rudd, who found inspiration in his Catholic faith to fight for the principles of liberty and justice. Born into slavery, Rudd achieved success early on as the publisher of the American Catholic Tribune, one of the most successful black newspapers of its era, and as the founder of the National Black Catholic Congress, USA.

As recent events have shown, the struggle for equality and justice is still ongoing across the globe. Now more than ever, Daniel Rudd's story is one all Christians need to hear.

I have pre-ordered "Daniel Rudd - Calling a Church to Justice". (Wait time 4-6 weeks.) If you would like to read it, please let me know and I will pass it along.
