ALL SAINTS

Entrance Antiphon

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

First Reading

Apoc 7:2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

Responsorial Psalm

Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Second Reading

1 Jn 3:1-3

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come to me all you that labour and are burdened,
and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mt 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak.

This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted.

Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.

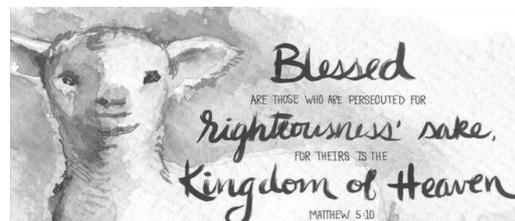

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Communion Antiphon

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

NOVEMBER MASSES

Month of the Holy Souls

November is traditionally the month of remembrance within the Catholic church, where we are given the opportunity to reflect on and pray for those who are no longer with us. Fr Jaybee will offer all Masses celebrated throughout November for the intention of praying for the faithful departed. If you wish to include your loved ones in these collective November Masses offered for the deceased, please fill out the November Mass Envelopes which are available in the Church foyer.

All Soul's Day: A Mass will be held at the Busselton Cemetery at 5pm on Monday, 2 November. Please bring a fold up chair for your comfort.

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

November Masses for the Holy Souls can be arranged through the Catholic Charity, Aid to the Church in Need. The Mass stipends are sent directly to poor priests and the Mass is offered for your intentions. You can arrange Masses at www.aidtochurch.org or call 1800 101 201. A few slips for this are in the churches.

SAFE GUARDING OFFICER

There will be a full day training workshop for new Safeguarding Officers on Friday, 4 December to be held in Perth at the Catholic Pastoral Centre in Highgate. However, this training will be offered via Zoom if needed. The primary role of the Parish Safeguarding Officers is to implement local policies & procedures for the protection of children and vulnerable adults, and to respond to concerns or complaints within the Parish. (Nominations must be sent off soon.) Please see Fr Jaybee if you would like to consider joining Tim Murphy, as a Safe Guarding Officer for our Parish.

PARISH MASS AND PICNIC

All are invited to our annual Parish Picnic and Mass next Sunday.

REMEMBER

There will be no 9.00am Mass next Sunday. Mass will be celebrated at 10.00am on the St Mary MacKillop oval at the College.

All of the finer details can be found on the back page. Our Parish Pastoral Council is pulling out all stops to make this a day to remember. They are also looking for volunteers to assist them with the setup between 9-10am on the day.

Please contact Tim Murphy if you can help (0418 932 170 timpaulamurphy@gmail.com).

This would be a great day to invite a friend or family member to accompany you. Catholic or not, gather them up and bring them along!

A PARISH WALKING GROUP

The Tuesday Girls group invite you to come along on Friday mornings at 6.30am for a walk on the jetty.

Young or old, male or female, fit or unfit, why not come along for a leisurely (or brisk) morning stroll. You will be home in time to go to work or to face the rest of the day invigorated.

We meet at the start of the jetty at 6.30am. Hope to see some new faces.

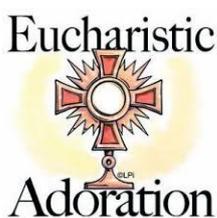

THANK YOU!

To those who have helped out by replacing the packets of the cleaning wipes at the end of the pews and who have donated towards the hand sanitisers. Also to everyone who is showing consideration by waiting until after Father leaves the altar before rustling the cleaning packets.

MARY MACKILLOP TODAY

Copies of 'Encountering St Mary MacKillop in Prayer' are in OLB Church and the Parish Office to help you celebrate the 10th Anniversary of the canonisation of Saint Mary MacKillop. This book was used throughout the Courage Hour (held the fortnight past) which was a wonderful way to pause, pray and reflect at the end of a busy week. Once you have your free book, go to <https://www.sosj.org.au/10th-anniversary/> and scroll down the page to find the video clip used that afternoon. The script for the video starts on Page 26 of the book. Prior to this page are prayers which share details of St. Mary MacKillop's personal journey and highlight her values and spirit. Prayers and blessings are offered for our modern world.

ADORATION

The Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament is not only a very old devotion in our Church, but one that highlights the fundamental mystery of the Holy Eucharist— that our Lord is truly present, body and blood, soul and divinity in the Blessed Sacrament.

Devotions which focus on the Blessed Sacrament aid in our spiritual union with our Lord. As Jesus said, "I myself am the Bread of Life. No one who comes to me shall ever be hungry, no one who believes in me shall ever thirst" (John 6:35). If you are available to give an hour of your time in adoration and contemplation of our Lord of a Thursday, in St. Joseph's Church, please contact Judy Mason 0402 461 373.

ROSTERS

Please contact the Parish Office if you wish to help, by going on the Reader and Commentator's Roster. Advise us of the dates you are available (or not available) and the Mass time you wish to attend. All weekend Masses are currently being held at Our Lady of the Bay.

THE MASTER NEEDS YOU

God has created me to do Him some definite service.

He has committed some work to me

which He has not committed to another.

I have my mission.

I may not know what it is in this life.

But I shall be told in the next.

I am a link in a chain,
a bond of connection between persons.

He has not created me for nothing.

I shall do good. I shall do His work.

Therefore I will trust Him.

Whatever I do, wherever I am,

I cannot be thrown away.

If I am in sickness,
my sickness may serve Him.

If I am in sorrow,
my sorrow may serve Him.

He does nothing in vain.

He knows what He is about.

Saint John Henry Newman (1801-1890)

The above would really have been better served in last week's bulletin. However as the message is timeless and so good, I give it to you now.
