32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

1 Kg 17:10-16

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: "Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."' The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm

Praise the Lord, my soul!

Second Reading

Heb 9:24-28

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

Alleluia!

Gospel

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

Mk 12:38-44

She has put more than all the others

Communion Antiphon (only when no musician)

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Wadandi people of the Noongar nation as the traditional custodians of this land on which we gather. We recognise their continuing connection to the land and waters, and thank them for protecting this coastline and its ecosystems since time immemorial. We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging, and extend that respect to all First Nations people who might be present today.

LECTORS

Could the Lectors at each weekend Mass, please meet in the Sacristy 10 minutes prior to the Mass beginning.

POPE'S NOVEMBER INTENTION

For: People Who Suffer From Depression

We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

NOVEMBER MASSES

Traditionally during November we remember the dead. If the death is relatively recent, this can be a very painful time.

In our liturgical celebrations we are urged to 'look both ways'. True remembrance is not just about looking back to the past, it is also about looking forward to the future, in trust and hope. Just as our loved ones shared in Christ's death in baptism, we believe they will share in Christ's resurrection to enjoy eternal life in God's presence.

..... Catholic Leader

Fr Jaybee will offer all Masses celebrated throughout November for the intention of praying for the faithful departed. If you wish to include your loved ones in these collective November Masses offered for the deceased, please fill out the November Mass Envelopes which are available in the Church foyers.

READ IN 'TITH.LY'

Mark recounts how Jesus was watching and waiting for those who were putting money into the temple treasury.

..... He was interested.

..... He is still interested.

..... He is still watching and waiting.

(Help me, Lord, to know what it means for me to give generously and sacrificially.)

It is necessary to have two people present at each two hour session and mostly each person is only rostered (on their preferred days) two or three times a month. Please consider giving us a hand – you will be suitably trained and initially you might just like to “come and see”. No-one is an “expert” in this field but being a good listener and being able to satisfy the needs of the clients in one way or another you will find - is reward enough! If you are able to assist, please contact Conference President Maria Parkinson on 0428 771140 or email maria.parkinson@westnet.com.au. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!

CELEBRATE WORLD YOUTH DAY WITH US ONLINE

Pope Francis has called on local celebrations of World Youth Day to be reinstated on the Feast of Christ the King! WYD CANDLELIGHT VIGIL ONLINE

Bring a candle and hold vigil with us! Traditionally on the day before an international WYD there is a pilgrimage walk and candlelit vigil at night with the Pope. We can't quite promise that, but we are inviting every parish and young person to take part in our WYD Candlelight Vigil Online. Each parish is asked to invite young people to bring a candle and to create a display to be shown live on Zoom and Facebook live. It can be as creative as young people want it to be. The Vigil will involve music and prayers and of course a montage of all the candle displays across the diocese. We hope you can participate! Get in touch with your local parish to see how you can take part or contact us! 21 November, 7:15- 8:15pm via Zoom. Email us at dioyouth@bunburycatholic.org.au for the meeting link!
