The Most Holy BODY and BLOOD of CHRIST

First Reading

Ex 24:3-8

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, 'We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed.' Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing-stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, 'We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey.' then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. 'This' he said 'is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules.'

Responsorial Psalm

I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Second Reading

Heb 9:11-15

Now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, which is better than one made by men's hands because it is not of this created order; and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption for us. The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer are sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement and they restore the holiness of their outward lives; how much more effectively the blood of Christ, who offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to God through the eternal Spirit, can purify our inner self from dead actions so that we do our service to the living God. He brings a new covenant, as the mediator, only so that the people who were called to an eternal inheritance may actually receive what was promised: his death took place to cancel the sins that infringed the earlier covenant.

Gospel Acclamation: (Sung)

*Alleluia, alleluia, give thanks to the risen Lord,
Alleluia, alleluia, give praise to his name.*

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

*Alleluia, alleluia, give thanks to the risen Lord,
Alleluia, alleluia, give praise to his name.*

Gospel

Mk 14:12-16, 22-26

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover. And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.' After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

Communion Antiphon

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

Next Week's Readings (Year B):

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"O Sacrament most holy! O Sacrament Divine! All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment Thine!" . . . . . St. Thomas Aquinas

'The Feast we celebrate today isn't just about the bread and wine we share in Eucharist, but the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ we are to one another. We share one cup, one life, one suffering, and one victory. God calls us to be a holy people.' . . . . . GPBS eNews

'The bread and wine of the Eucharist are Life for us, the shared life of the Risen Christ. Eucharistic life is covenanted life. It means giving life for the sake of the many, sometimes to the point of heroism, sometimes simply by sharing our resources or our time with others in need.' . . . . . Sister Veronica Lawson RSM

'When believers recall and repeat what the Lord did at that Last Supper, they commit themselves anew to abide by the way of life required by that covenant, a life of obedient love modelled on the loving service of Christ.' . . . . . Fr Brendan Byrne Australian Catholics

The Body of Christ shares the Body of Christ to become
The Body of Christ.

There are copies of the Bishop's Pastoral Letter on this Feast Day in the foyer. It can also be read on our Parish website. On page 3 he writes:

"Intimacy with him is not a matter of feeling. During the Last Supper, when he gave us the Eucharist, he taught that the proof of a relationship with him is living his teachings, particularly his commandments."

ST VINCENT DE PAUL WINTER APPEAL

The Society provides a vital service for individuals and families experiencing hardship. There are many reasons, why families and individuals seek the support of the St Vincent de Paul Society. Here in Busselton, we are able to provide food, clothing, furniture and household goods, assist with the payment of overdue utility bills and many other emergencies – we are always there to listen and wherever possible can fill an immediate need.

We thank you most sincerely for your ongoing assistance and generosity – with Winter now in full force, please consider giving that bit extra – most especially by making a MONETARY DONATION. Envelopes are available from the table at the entrance to the church and donations may be placed in the regular Sunday collection baskets or handed to a St Vincent de Paul member.

Become a Blue Hero in June for BUSSELTON HOSPICE CARE INC.

If Busselton Hospice Care Inc no longer existed, what would it mean for those wanting choice and needing support at the end of their lives, in the South West?

The Busselton Hospice is now fighting to keep these services in the South West. After 30 years of tireless community fundraising and receiving no ongoing government financial support, they are using their reserve funding to continue to keep our doors open until mid-2022.

They urgently need the community's support to raise $50,000 from this campaign to ensure their important and impactful community-based services can continue beyond this time. Every donation makes a huge impact. They now invite you to show your commitment to our local community and ask you to Go Blue in June for BHCI!

The financial reserves will run out by the middle of next year and without ongoing community support, they'll be forced to close the doors. Once lost, this service will be almost impossible for our community to get back. With your help, this situation can be avoided.

Please give a donation in line with your capacity. All donations over $2.00 are tax deductible. Every donation of $50 or more made during the June campaign is automatically entered in the draw to win some great prizes.

LOST

One of the Sisters of Our Lady of the Mission lost her emblem last Wednesday at the funeral Mass in Our Lady of the Bay Church. This emblem was designed to celebrate the presence of God among all people across the world. Please contact the Parish Office or Sr Bernadette if you have come across it. The Sister who lost it feels it may have snagged on the jumper of someone whom she hugged in welcome on the day.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

CWL will meet next Friday 11th June after Midday Mass. Winter is here and so is hot soup, bread and slices. Our guest speaker on the day will be Melissa on her work with Auslan. This is very important work and may be of interest to members of the Parish and you would be most welcome to join us.
